

DEMOCRACY ADMINISTERED

Panel Discussion

Join the School of Public Policy and the Rock Ethics Institute for a panel discussion inspired by the book Democracy Administered: How Public Administration Shapes Representative Government. The panel will use Anthony Bertelli's book as a starting point to explore how democracy and representative government carry on within the complexities of the modern administrative state.

Anthony Bertelli

Sherwin-Whitmore Professor of Liberal Arts, Penn State School of Public Policy

Ben Jones

Assistant Director of the Rock Ethics Institute, Penn State

Lee Ann Banaszak

Head of the Department of Political Science, Penn State

John Christman

Director of the Humanities Institute, Penn State

Sean Gailmard

Professor of Political Science, University of California, Berkeley

Tuesday, October 11

6:00 p.m. EDT

Foster Auditorium,
102 Paterno Library

DEMOCRACY ADMINISTERED

How Public Administration
Shapes Representative Government

ANTHONY MICHAEL BERTELLI

PennState

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC POLICY

rockethics
institute

University Libraries

This publication is available in alternative media on request. Penn State is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, and is committed to providing employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability or protected veteran status. Penn State encourages qualified persons with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities. If you anticipate needing any type of accommodation or have questions about the physical access provided, please contact Brandy Phillips at 814-865-4856 or publicpolicy@psu.edu, in advance of our participation or visit. U.Ed. LBS 23-103